MLT Vacations announces 2014 Early Booking Sale for travel agents Big hotel discounts in Mexico, Costa Rica, the Caribbean and Hawaii

ATLANTA (August 1, 2013) – MLT Vacations, a leading provider of vacation packages, today announced the start of its 2014 Early Booking Sale on vacation packages to Mexico, Costa Rica, the Caribbean and Hawaii.

The Early Booking Sale is available through Delta Vacations, United Vacations and Aeromexico Vacations. Travel agents can save their clients up to 65 percent on the hotel portion of vacation packages booked through Delta Vacations or United Vacations. The hotel discount for bookings through Aeromexico Vacations is up to 50 percent and includes reduced airfare on Aeromexico flights.

The booking deadline for the sale is Sept. 30 for travel between Jan. 1 and April 30, 2014.

“The goal of our early booking sale is to help get our travel agent partners off to a great start in 2014,” said MLT Vacations President John Caldwell. “With world-class resorts participating, travel agents can offer their clients substantial savings on a variety of amazing vacation packages at destinations throughout Mexico, the Caribbean, Costa Rica and Hawaii.”

There are hundreds of participating hotels including MLT Vacations’ Gold, Silver and Bronze Preferred Picks. Travel agents booking through Delta Vacation or United Vacations can earn their clients up to 7,500 bonus miles per person, when they book a participating Preferred Pick hotel.

The early booking sale does not have a promotional code and can be combined with other current offers, including offers for specialty programs such as luxury and romance vacations.
