MLT Vacations adds new destination to its Dominican Republic portfolio

World-class resorts give agents more booking options

PUNTA CANA, Dominican Republic (April 25, 2013) – While attending the Dominican Annual Tourism Exchange 2013, MLT Vacations announced today that it is adding a new destination to its Dominican Republic product offering.

Beginning April 30, travel agents booking through MLT's Delta Vacations and United Vacations brands can offer their clients three new resorts in the region of Samana, Dominican Republic.

Owned and operated by Bahia Principe, the resorts are the Grand Bahia Principe Cayo Levantado Don Pablo Collection; Grand Bahia Principe Cayacoa; and the Grand Bahia Principe El Portillo.

“We’re excited to add Samana to our Dominican Republic product offering,” said Karen Kammer, Director, Product Development Caribbean for MLT Vacations. “The Bahia Principe resorts in Samana are stunning and give travel agents great new choices when booking vacations for their clients.”

Samana is located approximately 112 miles from the capitol city of Santo Domingo. The transfer time is about two hours. The three resorts are located on the Samana Peninsula. The Grand Bahia Principe Cayo Levantado Don Pablo Collection and the Grand Bahia Principe Cayacoa are adults-only resorts.

The Samana Peninsula offers a variety of activities including hiking, watersports, fishing and diving. One of the biggest selling points for travel agents will be whale-watching. “Samana is home to a Humpback whale sanctuary and whale-watching is very popular during the winter months. It’s just the type of travel experience that creates lifelong memories,” said Kammer.
