Delta Vacations adds more ‘Spice’ to Caribbean portfolio for travel agentsIsland of Grenada vacation bookings available Nov. 26*

ATLANTA (Nov. 18, 2013) – Travel agents can soon book vacations in Grenada for their clients through Delta Vacations, according to leading provider of vacation packages in the U.S., MLT Vacations.

Delta Vacations packages in Grenada are available to travel agents for booking beginning Nov. 26 for travel beginning Jan. 4, 2014. Weekly nonstop service is aboard Delta Air Lines, MLT Vacations’ parent company, from New York’s John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK).

“We are always working to bring richness and diversity to our product portfolio,” said MLT Vacations President John Caldwell. “Grenada is a superb addition for our travel agent partners and should be very popular with their clients wishing to add a little ‘spice’ to their Caribbean vacation.”

A number of hotel and resorts will be offered through Delta Vacations, including Sandals LaSource Grenada Resort & Spa. This resort has 225 rooms and suites and is scheduled to open in December. Other hotel and resort partners include:

- Grenadian by Rex Resorts
- Mount Cinnamon Grenada
- Radisson Grenada Beach Resort
- Spice Island Beach Resort

Delta Vacations is also offering travel agents ground transportation options including airport-hotel transfers and rental car service. Travel agents can also offer their clients tours and excursions through Delta Vacations.

Known as the Spice Island, Grenada has more than 45 beaches, historic forts and museums, and features a wide variety of activities including snorkeling, fishing, hiking, boating and whale-watching.

Working with Delta Air Lines, Delta Vacations brings its travel agent partners and their clients superior levels of service. With Delta Vacations, travel agents get the lowest airfares on Delta, more ways to earn award travel and a lowest price guarantee for their clients’ vacations.
