

Delta Vacations offers air credits for Universal Orlando Resort vacations

Kids get up to $400 off flights with qualified bookings

ATLANTA (March 25, 2014) – Delta Vacations, a leading U.S. provider of world-class, tailored vacation packages, announces that it is teaming with Universal Orlando Resort to offer travel agents and their clients Delta Air Lines air credits for children.

Up to two children between the ages of 2 and 16 will each receive as much as a $400 air credit when accompanying two adults. The offer applies to qualified bookings of a flight and at least four nights at one of four Universal Orlando Resort hotels.

Vacations must be booked by April 4 for travel now through July 13 from any Delta Vacations origin in the U.S. and Canada. The promotional code is DV17975. Bookings for this promotion can only be made by calling the Delta Vacation's reservations center.

Participating hotels include: Loews Portofino Bay Hotel at Universal Orlando; Hard Rock Hotel at Universal Orlando; Loews Royal Pacific Resort at Universal Orlando; and Universal's Cabana Bay Beach Resort.

In cooperation with Delta Air Lines, Delta Vacations brings its travel professional partners and their clients superior levels of service, the lowest fares on Delta, more ways to earn award travel, and a lowest price guarantee for their vacation packages.

For complete terms and conditions, travel agents can visit www.worldagentdirect.com or call 1-800-727-1111.

###

Media contact: Albert Snedeker, 404-559-2110, asnedeker@mltvacations.com

About Delta Vacations (www.deltavacations.com) offers convenient one-stop shopping for affordable vacation packages that combine Delta Air Lines or Delta's codeshare partner flights with hotel stays, rental car, sightseeing and entertainment, escorted tours and more. Delta Vacations, in partnership with Air France Holidays and Alitalia Vacations, originate from more than 220 cities across the United States and Canada; destinations include more than 4,000 world-class hotels and resorts throughout Mexico, Costa Rica, the Caribbean, Europe, and Asia. Delta Vacations is managed and marketed by MLT Vacations, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Delta Air Lines.