

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Delta Vacations offers travel professionals more nonstop flights to Mexico*Additional peak season flights to top Mexican leisure destinations*

ATLANTA (April 14, 2014) – Travel professionals now have access to additional nonstop flights to top Mexican leisure destinations when planning their clients' 2014 holiday season vacations, according to Delta Vacations, a leading U.S. provider of world-class, tailored vacation packages.

The expanded service is aboard Delta Air Lines from Minneapolis/St. Paul, Atlanta and Salt Lake City to Los Cabos; and from Atlanta and Salt Lake City to Puerto Vallarta.

The added Minneapolis/St. Paul service begins Nov. 8. The increased Atlanta and Salt Lake City services begin Oct. 1. All new flights are available now for booking.

The expanded services include:

- A weekly service between Minneapolis/St. Paul and Los Cabos – beginning Nov. 8
- Four weekly services between Atlanta and Los Cabos – beginning Oct. 1
- Four weekly services between Salt Lake City and Los Cabos – beginning Oct. 4
- Four weekly services between Atlanta and Puerto Vallarta – beginning Oct. 5
- Four weekly services between Salt Lake City and Puerto Vallarta – beginning Oct. 1

The new flights are in addition to previously scheduled services and provide travel professionals and their clients with more options and choices. When planning their clients' holiday vacation packages, travel professionals can choose from more than 25 hotel and resort in Los Cabos, more than 20 in Puerto Vallarta and more than 12 in Riviera Nayarit available through Delta Vacations.

Travel professionals can save their clients up to $300 per booking on vacation packages to Los Cabos when booked by April 30. The travel window is now through Oct. 31. The promotional code is DV18091.

In cooperation with Delta Air Lines, Delta Vacations brings its travel professional partners and their clients superior levels of service, the lowest fares on Delta, more ways to earn award travel, and a lowest price guarantee for their vacation packages.

For more information, travel professionals can visit www.worldagentdirect.com or call 1-800-727-1111.

###

Media contact: Albert Snedeker, 404-559-2110, asnedeker@mltvacations.com

About Delta Vacations (www.deltavacations.com) – Delta Vacations offers convenient one-stop shopping for affordable vacation packages that combine Delta Air Lines or Delta's codeshare partner flights with hotel stays, rental car, sightseeing and entertainment, escorted tours and more. Delta Vacations, in partnership with Air France Holidays and Alitalia Vacations, originate from more than 220 cities across the United States and Canada; destinations include more than 4,000 world-class hotels and resorts throughout Mexico, Costa Rica, the Caribbean, Europe, and Asia. Delta Vacations is managed and marketed by MLT Vacations, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Delta Air Lines.