

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Delta Vacations adds Barbados to Caribbean portfolio*New destination offers opportunity, value for travel professionals and their clients*

ATLANTA (July 17, 2014) – Travel professionals can now book vacations in Barbados for their clients through Delta Vacations, a leading U.S. provider of world-class, tailored vacation packages.

Delta Vacations packages in Barbados are available now for travel beginning Dec. 4. Thursday and Saturday non-stop service to the Caribbean's easternmost island is aboard Delta Air Lines from New York's John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK) and Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport (ATL).

"Barbados is a stunning island with some of the most pristine beaches in the Caribbean," said MLT Vacations President John Caldwell. "When you add in our customer service and support, Delta's award-winning air service and truly impressive resorts, vacations in Barbados are a tremendous value and opportunity for travel professionals and their clients."

A number of hotel and resorts will be offered through Delta Vacations, including Sandals Barbados when it opens in early 2015. This resort will feature 280 refurbished rooms and 11 gourmet dining options, including Butch's Chophouse and Sandals' first ever Indian restaurant.

Other hotel and resort partners are:

- Fairmont Royal Pavilion
- The Crane
- Hilton Barbados
- Bougainvillea Beach Resort
- Turtle Beach Resort
- Coconut Court Beach Hotel

Delta Vacations packages to Barbados include roundtrip air transportation, choice of accommodations, hotel taxes and shared airport to hotel transfers with optional private airport to hotel transfers available.

Delta Vacations is offering travel professionals and their clients a number of tours and excursions in Barbados. Among these, the Atlantis Submarine Adventure explores Barbados' famed reef and marine life. The tour operates daily and includes roundtrip transfers.

In cooperation with Delta Air Lines, Delta Vacations brings its travel consultant partners and their clients superior levels of service, the lowest fares on Delta, more ways to earn award travel, and a lowest price guarantee for their vacation packages.

For more information, travel agents can visit www.worldagentdirect.com or call 1-800-727-1111.

###

Media contact: Albert Snedeker, 404-559-2110, asnedeker@mltvacations.com

About Delta Vacations (www.deltavacations.com) – Delta Vacations offers convenient one-stop shopping for world-class, tailored vacation packages that combine Delta Air Lines or Delta's codeshare partner flights with hotel stays, rental car, sightseeing and entertainment, escorted tours and more. Delta Vacations, in partnership with Air France Holidays and Alitalia Vacations, originate from more than 220 cities across the United States and Canada; destinations include more than 4,000 world-class hotels and resorts throughout Mexico, Costa Rica, the Caribbean, Europe, and Asia. Delta Vacations is managed and marketed by MLT Vacations, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Delta Air Lines.