MLT Vacations celebrates 2014 Quality Assurance Award winners
Top partners recognized for exemplary customer service at exclusive luncheon

ATLANTA (September 23, 2014) – MLT Vacations, a leading provider of vacation packages in the U.S., recently announced the winners of its 2014 Quality Assurance Award during an exclusive luncheon held at the company’s annual travel agency educational and networking event, MLT University, held in Minneapolis, MN.

“We are privileged to be your business partners,” MLT Vacations President John Caldwell told honorees during the event. “Your commitment to superior customer service delivery, your passion for hospitality and your unwavering attention to detail all help to ensure our mutual customers are surprised and delighted at every turn, and that they return year after year.”

Out of the more than 4,000 partners offered globally by MLT Vacations, an elite group of 275 hotels, 19 destination management companies and two car rental companies earned the MLT Vacations’ Quality Assurance Award designation for 2014.

The MLT Vacations Quality Assurance Award recognizes qualifying hotels, destination management companies and rental car agencies in Europe, Mexico, the Caribbean, Latin America and the U.S.

For the 2014 award, data was gathered from hundreds of thousands of customers who traveled with MLT Vacations. The annual Quality Assurance Award is earned by partners that achieve a 99 percent customer satisfaction index and 99 percent product delivery performance during the preceding six months.
