Delta Vacations helps travel agents grow sales of tours and activities
Commissionable excursion vouchers now available in Caribbean

ATLANTA (November 18, 2015) – Travel agents booking with Delta Vacations, the official vacation provider of Delta Air Lines, can now offer their clients flexible excursion vouchers that are redeemable for dozens of tours and activities in leading destinations throughout the Caribbean.

“More and more vacationers are adding activities and tours, however they often wait until they get to their destination to plan and purchase,” said MLT Vacations President John Caldwell. “These excursion vouchers allow travel agents to capture these sales to grow the value of their bookings with us.”

These vouchers are fully commissionable and provide vacationers the flexibility to plan their activities while in destination based on the weather, their own schedules and other factors. Delta Vacations excursion vouchers are available in a range of dollar denominations.

- Jamaica (Montego Bay, Ocho Rios, Negril) – Up to $300
- Dominican Republic (Punta Cana, La Romana) – Up to $300
- Aruba – Up to $100
- St. Martin/St. Maarten – Up to $100
- San Juan, Puerto Rico – Up to $75

Delta Vacations offers dozens of commissionable tours and activities in the Caribbean. These include river rafting and a dune buggy safari in Jamaica; zip-lining and swimming with dolphins in the Dominican Republic; exploring Aruba by jeep, and much more.

Delta Vacations and Aeromexico Vacations began offering excursion vouchers in select destinations in Mexico and Costa Rica earlier this year.

Managed by MLT Vacations, Delta Vacations offers its customers more ways to earn toward SkyMiles Medallion status on all Delta marketed flights - including Medallion Qualification Dollars on all fares - and a guaranteed Vacation Price Pledge when booking vacation packages to any of Delta Vacations' more than 250 destinations.
